OPPORTUNITY.

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door,
And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.
Will not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane!
Each night I burn the record of the day,
At sunrise every soul is born again.
Laugh like a bay at splendors that have sped!
To vanish joys be blind and deaf and dumb.
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never blind a moment yet to come.
Though deep in mire wring not your hands nor weep;
I lend my arm to all who say "I can."
No shamefaced outcast ever sank so deep
But might rise and be again a MAN.
Dost thou behold thy lost youth all aghast?
Dost reel from righteous retributions blow?
Then turn from bottled archives of the past

Shall we Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.
Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

COULD NOT WASH DISHES

In Such Misery Her Husband Begged Her to Take Cardui—So Says Mrs. Bishop, of Waverly, Va.

Waverly, Va.—"I suffered miserably, every month," says Mrs. Mattie L. Bishop, of this place, "and everything I ate would put me in such misery I would have to go to bed until it were off. I could not even wash my dishes, after a meal."

At last, my husband begged me to take Cardui. I had tried so many different kinds of medicine, I didn't want to take it, but agreed to try it for his sake.

Before I had finished one bottle, I could eat all I wanted, and could do all of my work all right. Now I feel all right, and suffer each month but very little pain."

If you are ailing, suffering from any of the troubles so common to women, or if you are merely weak and lack life and energy, remember that there is, on the shelf of your favorite drug-gist, a bottle of Cardui, waiting for you, ready for instant use, ready to give you relief, to build up your strength, to make you feel young, and fresh, and hopeful.

The bottle is there. Will you get it?

is the youngest living surgeon in the army of the late Confederacy. Dr. Fordham has numerous friends in the Gulf City who are delighted to grasp his hand. He is technically from "Missouri" and takes nothing for granted, having to be shown, even when a man winks at him. The doctor is an old Mobile boy and relates many amusing incidents during his residence in the Gulf City, when it had wooden sidewalks.

CONCERNING MR. JOHN EAGAN.

Mr. John Eagan, of Pensacola, has accepted a position with the Naval Animal vs. Vegetable.

There is not a single kind of animal food which we might not replace with a vegetable counterpart. In most cases it is merely a matter of choice which is preferable, the animal or the vegetable. In the matter of cooking fats, however, the vegetable has far the advantage. Lard is made from the fat of hogs—often impure and unclean, always indigestible. Cottole comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South. It makes food that can be digested with ease, even by invalids. Cottole is recommended by both physicians and noted cooking experts as a much more healthful and desirable cooking fat than lard.

FOR MISS KNOWLES.

Mrs. Albert Thornton will entertain at tea Sunday evening in honor of Miss Josie Knowles, of Pensacola, Fla., the guest of her cousin, Miss Constance Knowles.

Fourteen guests will be invited to meet Miss Knowles.—Atlanta Journal.

LEFT FOR BALTIMORE.

Mrs. Wm. Bronson left yesterday for Baltimore, where she will spend some time as the guest of relatives and friends, going later to Lynchburg, Va. She will join Mr. Bronson in Baltimore.

MR. AND MRS. UNGERER TO LIVE AT THE YARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Ungerer, who have made hosts of friends in Pensacola during their short residence here, will remove to their former home at the Navy Yard shortly, where Mr. Ungerer has accepted a fine position as foreman of the dock. Their numerous Pensacola friends will regret exceedingly to lose them.

MR. FRED DENNIS IMPROVES.

Mr. Fred Dennis, who is very ill at the Mission hospital with typhoid fever, is now slightly improving, according to a late report. He is still in a serious condition, however, and his friends are not allowed to visit him.

MR. ROBERT LAIRD IMPROVES.

Mr. Robert Laird, the father of Mrs. Fred Meyer, who has been very ill at his home in Warrington for several months, is now slowly improving. Those who know his fortitude, his fine Christian character and his true worth generally are watching his condition with considerable anxiety.

"THE BELLS" IN PORT.

The yacht "The Bells" owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, of Chicago, is in port again, to remain in local waters for some few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Bell, Sr., who are well-known in the city, are aboard and will be seen considerably about Pensacola.

TO WITNESS LAUNCHING OF FLORIDA.

Mr. H. G. DeSilva, who has been severely ill in a Brooklyn hospital, will, according to recent letters received among his Pensacola friends, be able to witness the launching of the battleship Florida. Mr. and Mrs. DeSilva are enjoying a delightful visit in the East.

NOMADS MET WITH MISS FAN WARREN.

Miss Fan Warren entertained the Nomads yesterday, Scotland being the country under discussion. Miss Warren gave an interesting essay on the "Historic Setting of the Play of Macbeth," and a greater part of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" was read and discussed. The afternoon was one of the most enjoyable which have occurred this season.

MRS. PEELMAN SPOKE TO THE LADIES AND CHILDREN.

Mrs. Peelman, field secretary for the Baptist Women's Work in Florida, gave two exceptionally fine addresses on Sunday at the East Hill Baptist church. The first was given for the benefit of the children, in which she outlined certain rules necessary to the living of the ideal Christian life, a number of the young people being present in order to profit from the remarks of this very brilliant woman.

At 4 o'clock Mrs. Peelman spoke to the ladies, and succeeded in interesting many in her work.

Will your Edison Phonograph play both

Standard (two-minute) Records
Amberol (four-minute) Records

Think what it means to have Records that play twice as long as those you have—another verse of the songs you like, a long-enough waltz or two-step, a monologue that gets somewhere, Grand Opera rendered without cutting or hurrying. Without the Amberol attachment you are missing a lot, and to bring this added pleasure to you

We offer attachment and ten Amberol Records at just about the price of attachment alone

Go to a near-by Edison dealer and get the details of this liberal offer. Go at once while it is in effect. These are special Amberols which will not be listed and which cannot be had except under this attachment offer. They cover a wide range of entertainment and have been made by the country's foremost musical talent. Dealers have the attachments and the Records. If there is no dealer near by, write us.
